Experienced Sales + Customer Service
The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. This 1975 Cheoy Lee has been owned by the seller for the last 20 years.

This is a Ketch with a Cutter Rig on her. It has a full keep and a Clipper Bow so it is not a racer, but will handle well in open seas. All of the rigging is stainless and it is original.

It has been mainly a freshwater boat having been moved from Puget Sound in 2003 and taken to Idaho.

The masts are citrus spruce and in reported good condition. The galley has a propane stove that has not been used in a few years. It does not have a refrigerator, but it has an icebox. It has a head with a shower, and across from it is a hanging locker.

It will sleep four with a v berth and two settee berths. There is also a working autopilot.

The ballast is lead, and the boat is 12,000 pounds.
