Only Used In Fresh Water! Very Clean And Well Kept With New Carpets!

Entry-level buyers seeking a family cruiser with comfort amenities will find much to like in the 310 Santego.

New to the market in 1994, she was built on a modified-V hull with a swim platform, a bow pulpit, and relatively high freeboard.

The Santego's full-width cabin is extended to the hullsides resulting in a spacious and wide-open interior. Stepping below from the small cockpit, the floorplan is arranged on a single level with the owner's stateroom forward and lounge seating on both sides of the salon.

The starboard dinette converts to a double berth, and the portside lounge converts to an upper and lower bunk and includes a privacy curtain.

Additional features include a doublewide helm seat with guest seating forward, good engine access, cockpit shower, transom door, and swim platform with storage lockers.
